

Digital Signage Screens

AlphaSignage provides you with a high quality commercial screen which can be deployed in almost any environment or situation where you would like to provide and share information. Currently deployed in the Health, Education, Restaurant, Professional Services, Property, Transport and Retail sectors, our screens, coupled with our expert in-house design facility allow your product offers, public service information, menu details etc. to be updated and deployed in seconds. Our clients also have an opportunity to generate revenue from their AlphaSignage through the creation and sale of time based digital signage that can be deployed on your screens.

All installations are carried out by our professional in-house team with full training provided on the use of the signage software.
